

Resources for Teachers and Educators

Activity Sheets:

- Animals in War – Set Yourself a Challenge – creative tasks for all ages
- Imagine You are a Farrier in WWI – KS2/KS3 – involves research and links to literacy

[The above were produced with the Donkey Breed Society (Northern Region).]

Some suggested reading for teachers and educators:

- www.artfund.org/professional/newsandinsights/what-do-teachers-want-from-museums s New research published into what teachers want from museums - Art Fund a new report by Art Fund, supported by the Clore Duffield Foundation, provides insights into the support teachers need to use museums and galleries as resources in their work, for the benefit of themselves and their students. Check out this very interesting article: art-fund-teacher-insights-for-museums-22.pdf accessed via Artfund.
- Extended Project Teacher Guide - Using Museums and galleries This guide from OCR is intended to support teachers and students in using museums and galleries to enrich, inform and inspire student research and work. It contains suggested activities, case studies and information about getting the most from a museum visit. www.ocr.org.uk/images/369782-using-museums-and-galleries-teacher-guide.pdf.
- 40 Ways to Diversify The History Curriculum. A Practical Handbook. Elena Stevens. July 2022. Crownhouse.co.uk ISBN 9781785836305
- What is History Teaching, Now? A Practical Handbook for all History Teachers and Educators Edited by Alex Fairlamb & Rachel Ball ISBN-13: 9781398388710

Many museums provide:

- Customised sessions
- Pre and post visit activities
- Object based learning prompts
- Digital stories
- Printable activity/work sheets

[Ask your nearest Museum for details of their resources, they will be only too happy to help.]
